Athlete's Code of Conduct

All Curler's Corner Advanced U18 Team Program participant must adhere to the following:

1. Treat teammates, yourself, coaches, opponents, officials, volunteers, guests, club employees, members and parents with respect. You must show respect to all people. Promote cooperation and respect on a daily basis between all program participants.
2. The Curler's Corner Advanced U18 Team Program has a zero-tolerance policy when it comes to bullying. Failure to abide by this rule will result in the athlete's parent(s) being called and the athlete being removed from the building that day. Subsequent occurrences, if any, shall be subject to stricter disciplinary measures.
3. Conduct yourself in a manner that will make you, the team and your club look great at all times.
4. Agree to abide by all the rules of the North Hill Curling Club and any host clubs or venues.
5. Theft or vandalism of any property, training facilities, equipment, etc., shall not be tolerated. The athlete shall be held accountable for such actions and agree to reimburse the North Hill Curling Club directly for any such damage.
6. Contribute to the constant state of cleanliness in the club (ice area, lobby, change rooms, etc.)
7. Avoid substance use – whether alcohol or drug abuse – as well as the use and possession of illegal drugs as defined in the laws of Canada and Alberta.

I have read and understand the above statements and agree to conduct myself in a manner that demonstrates the standards established in this Athlete's Code of Conduct. I also understand that failure to abide by rules may result in disciplinary action by the U18 Committee or the North Hill Board of Directors. The police will be called for any illegal act. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to: warning; suspension from the program; revocation of membership in the program.
