Coronavirus Bulletin

November 11, 2020

Calgary, Alberta – November 11, 2020

The North Hill Curling Club (the "NHCC" or the "Club") has been informed that 1 more member from the Monday Night Open team that recently reported having two positive test results has also had a positive test result. The fourth player of that team has tested negative. The last two members tested on Monday November 9th and were advised late yesterday by Alberta Health Services ("AHS") of the positive and negative test result. This curler was last in the building on Sunday November 8, 2020 (morning draw). The person with the positive test is currently isolating in their home. Their team and opposing Skip have been informed.

We sincerely wish for a speedy recovery of the individual who visited our facility.

The Management and Board of Directors of the NHCC remain committed to the health and safety of its curlers and employees and have put in place a number of protocols to mitigate transmission of COVID-19. It is essential that all people coming into the facility comply with posted rules regarding the use of masks and physical distancing. We reiterate that anyone experiencing any symptoms should stay at home and contact health authorities.

Any future communication of a similar nature will be posted to our website; so please go to www.nhcc.ca to check for updates.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Todd Bolianatz, General Manager, at 403-277-3158; or curl@nhcc.ca
